This detached period home sits prominently on a quiet lane in the desirable parish of Forest, just above Petit Bot valley and within a short distance from the amenities of St Martin's.

The accommodation currently comprises three bedrooms, multiple reception rooms, a kitchen and bathroom and is further complemented by ample parking on an in and out driveway, garage and established gardens.

A real highlight is the adjoining agricultural field which measures 6 vergee and 3.64 perch (2.4 acres) which further houses a former packing shed.

Subject to relevant permissions, the site presents an exciting opportunity for refurbishment or redevelopment, and early viewing is highly recommended.

School catchment: St Martin's Primary School / Les Beaucamps High School
