About this property

A super new build option for a buyer looking to create a stunning home set within over 1.5 acres of grounds. The structure has been set out to provide two good sized bedrooms upstairs, with a kitchen diner and lounge downstairs. In addition on the ground floor there is a study, utility and shower room. The layout could be changed depending on the new owners requirements, and could be adapted to provide an additional bedroom, or en suites.

The land, whilst mostly agricultural, has received approval for an extension to the domestic curtilage. This now provides scope for future extensions on both sides of the house, should the new buyer require something larger than the building currently on offer.

Those looking for a peaceful home with a fantastic amount of separation from neighbours need look no further.
